

Announcement of Songkanong Subdistrict Administrative Organization
Subject: Policy of not accepting neither gifts nor profits from performing duties (No Gift Policy)
Fiscal year 2024

Songkanong Subdistrict Administrative Organization (Songkanong SAO) places a strong emphasis on effective organizational management guided by principles of good governance, aiming to foster trust and confidence within the community regarding its commitment to sound governance practices. In my capacity as the Chief Executive of Songkanong SAO, I officially declare my dedication to executing responsibilities and overseeing national affairs, particularly in the realm of preventing and combatting corruption within public sectors. I commit to discharging my duties with the utmost diligence, adhering to principles of accountability, honesty, and transparency as outlined in the ethical guidelines for governance. I affirm that I, along with all executives and officials associated with Songkanong SAO, harbor no intention of accepting gifts or profits in connection with our duties, both prior to and subsequent to their execution. Such a commitment is pivotal in averting corruption and misconduct, both in the present and future. Furthermore, I pledge to actively oppose all manifestations of corruption, working towards instilling a culture of honesty and integrity within Songkanong SAO. This commitment is a concerted effort to uphold values of honesty and establish a resilient organizational culture characterized by integrity.

This proclamation is hereby issued and is to be strictly adhered to by all concerned parties.
